LOCAL AND FAMILY HISTORY CONFERENCE
21-23 OCTOBER 2022

We are excited to announce that planning for the 2022 Queensland State Conference for Family and Local History is underway. "Sands Of Time" will be held over three days, October 21st – 23rd at the Redcliffe Leagues Club in the beautiful Moreton Bay region.

This is an important event for family and local historians and will:

- Provide an inspiring platform to inform across a wide range of topic and levels of expertise.
- Highlight the significant work undertaken by volunteers as they link individuals with families, ancestors and communities.
- Provide a forum for societies to discuss the opportunities and challenges that lie ahead.
- Introduce the wider community to the benefits of researching through family and local history societies

Please consider the attached invitation which you or one of your favoured local speakers may like to take up. We would like this Conference to be representative of as many family and local history communities as possible. So please pass this invitation on via your newsletters to ensure that this offer reaches all researchers working in the areas of family and local history.

Yours sincerely,

Call For Speakers

Are you an industry expert, passionate historian or research professional willing to share your experiences, insights and knowledge with colleagues and peers?

History Redcliffe is now accepting proposals for educational sessions at the nationally recognised Queensland State Conference for Family and Local History 2022, which is taking place 21st – 23rd October 2022.

We are looking for dynamic speakers and important topics that will provide the best possible experience for attendees. This is a great opportunity for you to give back to your profession by sharing your knowledge and insights.

Attendees today are looking for more out of their conference education experience—hands-on learning, interaction with the presenter, case studies, real-world examples, and opportunities to dive deeper into topics. We strongly encourage you to consider new ways to incorporate these types of interactions while you are developing your session. Be sure to indicate in your submission how you intend to deliver this interactive type of learning environment.

Submission close on Friday 18th March 2022.

Topics areas for the conference

We are looking for submissions across a range of topics that may include the following areas:

- DNA
- Process improvement
- Emerging technologies
- Methodology
- Capturing history as it happens

The following types of sessions will be offered at our 2022 event:

- 60-minute session (Keynote Presentation)
- 40-minute session

This submission is only for the 40-minute session.

Speaker Perks

Speakers who are selected will receive the following benefits:

- Registration to the conference which includes the Welcome Function on Friday 21st October
- Conference bag
- Speaker gift

Presentations

- Speakers to have a maximum of 40 minutes.
- Address successes, changes, challenges or experiences in local or family history.
- Be relevant to societies and individual family and local historians.
- Must not have been presented as part of any family or local history society program from 1 April 2022 to 2 months after the conference in October 2022.
- No additional time for Q&A will be added. Speakers are requested to attend for at least the full day of their presentation to provide advice, answer questions from delegates and 'mingle' during the breaks.

If you are interested in submitting a proposal, please complete the attached form and send it to the Conference Planning Committee by Friday 18th March 2022. Up to three proposals may be submitted.
