

Newsletter No. 3 – February 2022

Greetings from the Sands of Time Conference Organising Committee. We are pleased to bring you the latest news and developments as we edge closer to the 4th Queensland State Local and Family History Conference. October is only 9 months away!

Keynote Speakers

We have lined up a great set of keynote speakers for the conference and we will be announcing these very soon. Stay tuned to our website and social media for the reveal!

Call for Speakers

The call for speakers was released in November and will remain open until 18th March 2022 so, if you know of a great speaker you think suitable, please let them know about the EOI document on our website <https://sandsoftime.org.au>. Time is nearly running out so don't delay.

Sponsorship Prospectus

Our sponsorship prospectus has been released and we are looking for sponsors to come on board as soon as possible to enjoy the benefits of our marketing and media program. Download your copy from our website today!

Current Grants, Sponsors and financial supporters

Hon Yvette D’Ath (Member for Redcliffe) has agreed to be a silver sponsor. We love this support of our local community. Thank you, Yvette.

MyHeritage has recently agreed to become a bronze sponsor and we welcome their support. MyHeritage is an online genealogy platform with web, mobile, and software products and services that was first developed and popularized by the Israeli company MyHeritage in 2003. Check out their website <https://www.myheritage.com>

Margate Community Bank, Bendigo Bank is our latest bronze sponsor and we are very pleased to welcome them on board.

When you bank with Community Bank Margate, profits pour into the community. Like our sponsorship of the 2022 Sands of Time Conference. A bank giving back sounds unusual, for us, it's business as usual. Feel good about who you bank with and to find out more talk to our friendly staff, call 3883 2399 or search BendigoBank.com.au/margate.

Moreton Bay Regional Council supported the development of our Sands of Time website with a community grant in 2020 and we hope you check it out <https://sandsoftime.org.au>.

Friends of History Redcliffe made a donation which secured them as a bronze sponsor just to make sure we get the financial support we need to make this conference great. We just love this level of commitment and are so very grateful. Thank you!

Traders in Purple became our very first sponsor, Traders in Purple is a national property and construction group with a difference. Their portfolio spans a diverse spectrum of projects including apartments, masterplan communities, mixed-use precincts and hotels. Check out their website <https://tradersinpurple.com>.

Ancestry has become our first gold sponsor and we welcome their support. Ancestry membership doesn't just let you build your family tree, it opens the door to a wealth of discoveries to help you better understand your past. Check out their website <https://www.ancestry.com.au>.

We are currently working with a number of exciting potential sponsors so keep checking the website for more sponsor updates.

See you soon!

As we count down the months, weeks and days to the conference, we're getting more and more excited to bring you a great event. Don't forget to mark you diaries, sign up to receive updates, follow us on Facebook, check our website, support our sponsors and get ready for an awesome conference.

Stay tuned for updates regarding the conference program and registrations coming soon.
